EDUCATION AND TRAINING FOR CITIZENS OF TWO WORLDS

Saint Joseph's has dedicated itself to the promotion of the Christian way of life through the education of Catholic laymen. The religious training and character formation of the student, as well as sound scholarship, social activities, and physical well-being, are emphasized.

DEDICATION

The graduates of 1948 are the first class of the second decade to earn degrees at Saint Joseph's since it became a senior college. With this thought in mind, the Seniors of 1948 dedicate this number of PHASE to the first ten graduating classes of Saint Joseph's.

In its graduates a school sees the fulfillment of its aims and objectives. On their success in life depends in great measure the standing of a college in the educational field. Saint Joseph's is proud of the graduates of its first ten years as a senior college. They have left its sheltered walls and in their daily life reflect the training they have received here. In all walks of life—as priests, teachers, doctors, lawyers and accountants—they have set standards which succeeding classes may well strive for.

The graduates of 1948 pledge themselves to maintain these high standards in their chosen fields, and to work for the growth of a greater Saint Joseph's.

It is their fond hope that the perusing of these pages of PHASE will recall for the "old grads" the days they spent here, and inspire them to rededicate themselves to the principles of Catholic Education learned at Saint Joseph's.

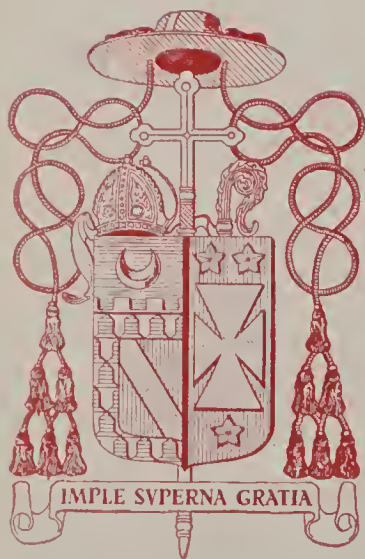

BISHOP

Each issue of PHASE records the events of a year of college life at St. Joseph's. We look for its coming with the anticipation that our love for the school keeps alive. Each year we feel that the accomplishments of the college surpass those of former times, and we hurry to offer our felicitations. We greet the members of the faculty, the students, and all who combine their efforts to bring St. Joseph's to the front as an educational institution. We rejoice in the success that has attended every effort, and pray God to continue His favor upon all who are a part of St. Joseph's.

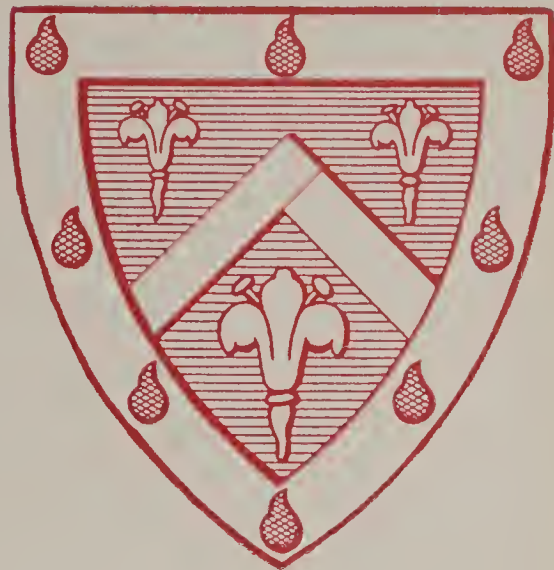

J. J. Denny

Bishop of Lafayette in Indiana

Only a sincere search for objective truth and a fearless respect for Christian principles will bring to light a solution for the economic, sociological, political confusion of the nations. Only the Saving Truth of Christ as guarded and interpreted by His Vicar stands squarely in the path of those who would deprive their fellowmen of moral and intellectual and political freedom. The men of St. Joseph's can enter the world of affairs with the assurance that they have been provided with the intellectual and moral weapons that enlist them in the forces of Right. God grant that the graduates of '48 and those who will follow them will carry the message of Christ to their fellow citizens with courage and with prayer!

PHASE salutes the Brothers of the Society of the Precious Blood at Saint Joseph's. As auxiliaries to the priests, they are assigned various tasks on the campus. Tilling the field is the work of some; others supervise the work in the power house, the carpenter shop, the barber shop and the tailor shop. And as reward for their faithful labor, the Brothers are content with the privilege of serving God in the Society of the Precious Blood.

DIETITIAN

Preparation of menus and the supervision of meals at Saint Joseph's are in the capable hands of a graduate dietitian. Miss Clara Gabel, who assumed her duties here last November, graduated from Ball State Teachers' College with an A.B. in Home Economics and from Purdue University with a master's degree in Foods and Nutrition. She served with the WAC for eighteen months in World War II, with the rank of 1st Lieutenant.

BUSINESS

The work in Saint Joseph's Business Office is in the capable hands of Mr. Edward Heiman and Mr. Herman Glotzbach, assistants to Fr. Otte, College Treasurer.

The College Health Center is under the supervision of Emeric J. Kotanyi, M.D., D.D.S., a graduate of the German Medical University at Prague. Before coming to America, nine years ago, Dr. Kotanyi spent several years in experiments and research at the University of Vienna.

John Cangany, V. Pres. (right)

After four years of books, competitions and social events, anxieties and fond memories, twenty-four young men set out as graduates of Saint Joseph's College. Trained for citizenship of Two Worlds, they go forth to meet the problems of everyday living.

A number, classified as seniors, will return to Saint Joseph's in the fall to complete the requirements for their degree.

Eighty-four percent of the graduates are veterans of World War II; many of them are transfer students from other colleges. Several members of the class completed their studies last January, and have begun post-graduate work or have established themselves in industry and other fields.

Saint Joseph's sends these young men into the world with the best wishes and prayers of its faculty and student body.

The Class of 1949, small in comparison with other classes this year, makes up in spirit what it lacks in numbers. Sixty-five juniors registered at the second semester. More than seventy-five percent of the class are veterans and active members of the Father Falter Post.

Courses in business are most popular with the members of the Junior Class. Under competent and experienced faculty direction, these business juniors are setting their sights on Two Worlds.

Overshadowing all other social events of the past year was the Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Junior Class, honoring the graduates of 1948.

As a junior, Joe Puma is privileged to wear the school class-ring, a symbol of leadership and upper-class standing.

The largest Sophomore Class in the history of Saint Joseph's did much during the past year to add lustre to its fine record begun last year.

Again this year the Class of 1950 held top spots in all sports activities, but especially in basketball, where eight members of the team were Sophs.

A fine spirit of cooperation in all campus activities presages a successful year for the new Juniors of 1948-'49.

FRESHMAN CLASS

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Two hundred and thirty-six young men enrolled at Saint Joseph's, last September, as members of the Class of 1951. For the first time since the close of World War II veterans of that conflict were in the minority.

The Homecoming fire—one of the best in Collegeville's history—and the annual Valentine Dance, sponsored and presented by the freshmen, brought into focus what organization, hard work and school spirit on the part of the freshmen can do.

Hopes run high for the Class of 1951.

COMMUNITY STUDENTS

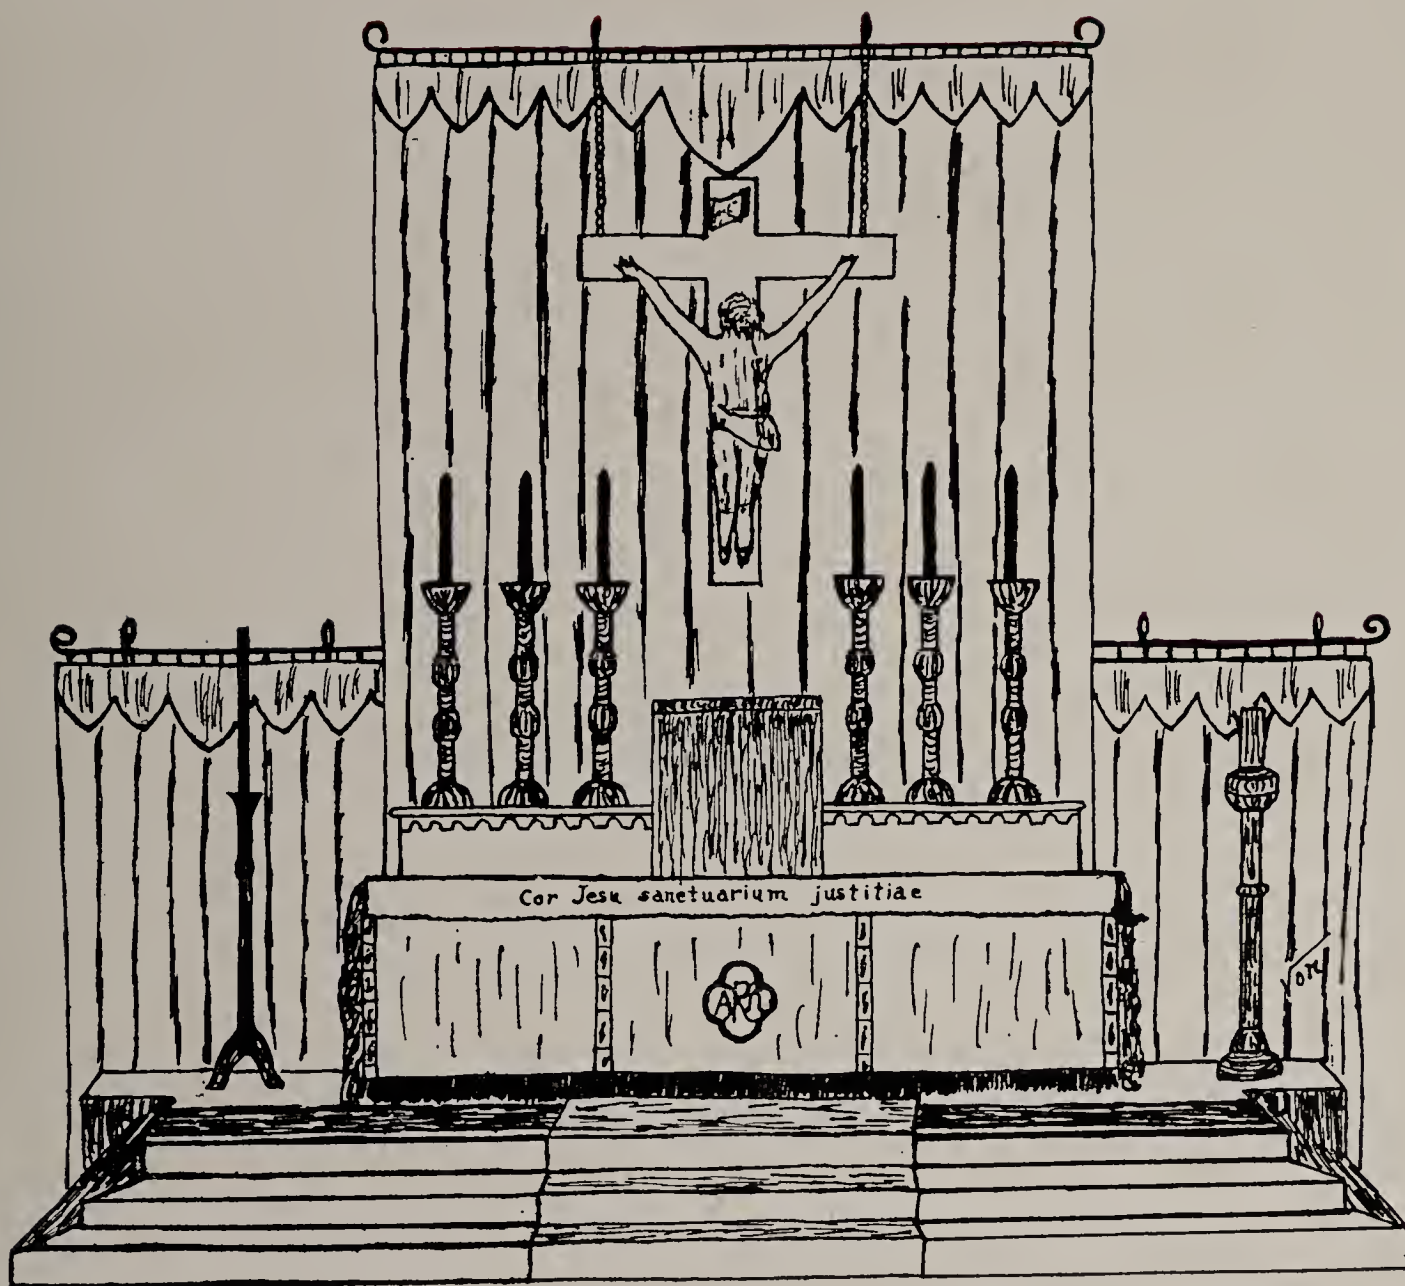

Students preparing for the priesthood in the Society of the Precious Blood reside in Xavier Hall, one of the newer residence halls on the campus.

The activities of these preparatory seminarians are numerous. Many of them are members of the Choir, Band and Orchestra, and manage their own dramatic society, the Curtain Club, and the Dwenger Mission Unit.

They engage in intramural competition in touch football, basketball and softball. This year the Xavierites were champions in the inter-hall football league.

The seminarians undergo a vigorous academic training, with stress being laid on English, Latin and Greek. After two years at Saint Joseph's they pursue courses in philosophy and theology at Saint Charles Seminary, Carthagen, Ohio.

SOCIETIES

Extracurricular activity is an essential element in the preparation of men of Saint Joseph's for the uncertainties of the future. Some of these activities are purely social in purpose; others are combinations of the social, the cultural, and the religious; all provide that necessary counterweight which keeps the wheel of education in perfect equilibrium.

In addition to their serving as reliefs for study-weary mental equipment, these outside affairs aid greatly in developing within a man not only the ability to get along with his fellows, but the ability to use these associations for the attainment of common ends. Such organization is necessary for success and happiness in the material world ahead.

Preparation for the Other World is exemplified through banding together also. As Collegeville men study and work together; play, plan their recreational activities and pursue their cultural interests together, so also do they pray together.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Composed of presidents of the various campus organizations, the Student Council provides a link between the college administration and the student body. The duties of the Council are not restricted solely to the enforcement of administrative policies, however.

This organization, under the advisory supervision of the Director of Student Welfare, also serves as the focus for petitions and suggestions originating from below. Such measures, introduced to the Council in open session, are there discussed and acted upon; then, pending approval by the Council, are submitted to the College Administrative Board for final action.

Several changes were made in Council procedure this year. As a result of a campus-wide petition, the Council president henceforth will be chosen from the student body-at-large by general election. Eligibility for this high position requires that a candidate be a senior in good scholastic standing.

During the past year the Council met in open session for the first time in history. Continued interest of the students in their own governmental proceedings bodes well for an effective student government in the future.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Albertus Magnus Society is an honor society of students majoring or minoring in the field of the physical sciences. Meetings are held every second and fourth Wednesday of the month. Movies of scientific interest are shown, and members read original papers on a subject in the field of science. Papers during the past year included a study of comets, phylum, and the determination of structural formulas of organic compounds.

Each year the Society sponsors a Science Day Exhibit. Displays, student lectures and demonstrations combine to make these exhibits most profitable.

Officers for the 1947-'48 scholastic year were William E. Jackson, president, John A. Weis, secretary, and Anthony Lambo, Treasurer.

Congratulations to the Albertus Magnus Society on its tenth anniversary.

SANGUINIST CLUB

The Sanguinist Club for Catholic Action is a unit of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, and its members share in the spiritual and temporal benefits from this affiliation. All student religious activities on the campus are organized through the Sanguinist Club. Among these activities are the publication of the monthly religious bulletin, The Sanguinist; two triduums annually, honoring the Mother of God; and sponsoring the annual Catholic Press Exhibit.

The perpetual Novena to the Sorrowful Mother, held every Friday evening, was inaugurated at Saint Joseph's last spring through the initiative of the Sanguinist Club.

MONOGRAM CLUB

Varsity athletes, cognizant of the necessity of teamwork and sportsmanship on the field of play, are aware of its advantages in the social world also. Restricted to winners of the "J," the Monogram Club is rapidly getting back on its feet in this its second year following a long period of wartime dormancy. Owing to the influx of underclassmen into varsity athletics since the war, the club is young and should flourish in its new youth.

Primarily a social organization, the Monogram Club was a strong backer of all school activities this last year; when the call for help was issued, the lettermen were there. No task was too menial for this exclusive group, as its members co-operated wholeheartedly in the handling of crowds and the vending of refreshments at sports events in which they were not actually participants.

Yes, these monogram men constitute a select group; but they are the only ones who don't believe it.

COMMERCE CLUB

The Commerce Club's gavel has called a meeting to order on the first Monday of each month to promote interest in the functions of commerce and industry.

Its sixty-six members were under the moderatorship of Fr. Albert Gordon, with Jack Smith, president; George Dingley, vice-president; Charles Voors, secretary; Robert Simonis, treasurer; and Thomas Smith, secretary of the executive board.

The club is divided into Economics and Accounting divisions, which met separately to discuss related problems and to promote scholarship in their respective fields.

At the October meeting Fr. Frederick Fehrenbacher addressed a joint meeting of both divisions on the subject "Cooperation in the United Nations."

Thirty-eight young ladies, students at Mundelein College, Chicago, came to Collegeville on November 22. Escorted by members of the Commerce Club, they attended a basketball game and concluded an enjoyable evening at a dance in the recreation hall.

ECONOMICS - ACCOUNTING

On January 5, Mr. Norman K. Knaub, prominent Rensselaer insurance agent, addressed the club on "Insurance as an Investment." Later in the month the members directed the collection of funds for the "March of Dimes" campaign, which resulted in the largest sum ever collected on the campus for this noble cause.

Fr. Gordon awarded service keys to ten members, including two former presidents of the club. Five semesters of active membership is a prerequisite for this award. The Hon. Charles Halleck, majority leader in the House of Representatives and Jasper county resident, was awarded a key and lifetime honorary membership.

Members of the club visited business houses in Fort Wayne, April 21, and in the evening attended a dance at St. Francis College as guests of the Fort Wayne college girls.

A gala dinner concluded the year's activities of the club on May 4. Mr. Hugh Kennerk, a Fort Wayne attorney, was guest speaker.

Elaborate plans are being made for the celebration of the club's tenth anniversary. PHASE congratulates the Commerce Club on the completion of its first decade of progress and service.

VETERANS' CLUB

In the spring of 1946 fifty-seven veterans of World War II banded together at Saint Joseph's to form the Father Falter Post, named in honor of the Rev. Clement M. Falter, former Saint Joseph's professor and the first U. S. Army chaplain killed in the European theatre of operations. Membership in the club has since grown to nearly two hundred.

The Father Falter Post sponsors the Father Falter Sportsmanship Award which is presented each year to the athlete in each of the three major sports showing the best qualities of true sportsmanship.

FATHER FALTER POST

Meetings are held once a month, under the leadership of Mr. Richard Scheiber, moderator, and feature discussions of problems and issues relating to veteran affairs. The Post has a standing list of blood donors who have volunteered their services to the needs of the Jasper County Hospital.

The ultimate objective of the Father Falter Post is to foster fellowship among the veterans and to do its part toward creating and maintaining a pleasant atmosphere for all students at Saint Joseph's.

RADIO ACCEPTANCE POLL

Saint Joseph's conferred Honorary Doctor of Laws degrees upon James and Marian Jordan, noted radio comedians.

During the past year through the National Press Commission of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, the Radio Acceptance Poll, or RAP, as it is known to thousands of college students, was undertaken at Saint Joseph's.

The Radio Acceptance Poll is a nation-wide student project to determine the acceptability or unacceptability of radio comedy programs and personalities on those programs. Acceptability is based on the simple premise: "Would a stranger be welcome in your home by all members of your family, if he or she said the same things as the radio performer is saying?"

20,000 college and university students, both Catholic and non-Catholic, participated in the RAP program in the first year of its existence. Final tabulations showed that James and Marian Jordan, known to millions of radio listeners as Fibber McGee and Molly, were rated the most highly acceptable of all radio comedians.

FREEDOM SERIES

His Excellency, Bishop Bennett of Lafayette, points out the Ten Commandments of Communism.

Saint Joseph's answer to the challenge of Communism in American education and in the American community was embodied in a series of talks generally entitled, "American Freedom in Action," presented during the last semester.

First speaker on the series was the Most Rev. John G. Bennett, bishop of Lafayette, who addressed the faculty and student body on the subject: "When Will World War III Begin?" Mr. Ernest H. Reed, manager of education and training for International Harvester Company, spoke on "Employee Training."

The series will be continued in the fall, when leaders in many fields will appear in the college theatre.

Students at Saint Joseph's prepare themselves for many professions. Each year finds a number of them enrolled for pre-theology courses which will prepare them for entrance into major seminaries. Nine dioceses were represented at Saint Joseph's this year. Six of the young men pictured above will enter seminaries in the fall.

N. F. C. C. S.

Discussion groups met at the Regional N. F. C. C. S. Convention, held on the campus, last February.

The National Federation of Catholic College Students occupies an important place at Saint Joseph's. Here as at hundreds of other Catholic Colleges, the N.F.C.C.S. has become a vital force in student life. The student body and the faculty moderator, Father Joseph Scheuer, work to give energetic and practical application to the teachings of the Holy Father and the Church's leaders; to contribute to the spreading and deepening of Catholic opinion by providing the membership with suggestions and practical material in the field of Catholic Action, by acting as a medium for the exchange of ideas and experiences on the part of affiliated units.

FOR CATHOLIC ACTION

The N.F.C.C.S. includes in its framework and program provision for the proper coordination of every phase of student activity. This is accomplished through its various Commissions, national, regional, and local, for developing special projects and furthering particular objectives.

The most outstanding, and certainly the most active of all Commissions—the National Press Commission, is held by Saint Joseph's, with John W. Lynch, Jr., as chairman. Saint Joseph's likewise holds the Regional Liturgy, Press and Science Commissions.

Saint Joseph's is one of the seven Colleges making up the Fort Wayne Region, N.F.C.C.S. Victor Toeppe, a sophomore, is president of the region.

Senior Delegate on the campus is Joseph McGrath, who represents our student body at Regional and National meetings.

XAVIER GLEE CLUB

Fr. Heiman directs Xavier Glee Club in Christmas Concert.

The College Choir is composed of students of Xavier Hall. Its fifty members maintain a high standard in their careful rendition of Vatican Chant and in their interpretation of the compositions of the old masters in Church Music. Members of the choir are likewise members of the Xavier Glee Club and present several programs annually.

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB

The College Glee Club is open to all students who have the necessary qualifications, and presents concerts ranging from the classics to the moderns. Annually in conjunction with the glee club of St. Francis College for Girls, Joliet, Illinois, the local Club presents a Christmas Cantata.

Climaxing the year's presentations was an old-fashioned Minstrel Show, featuring two acts of comedy and song.

The Club is under the direction of Mr. Daniel Connor, assistant professor of Music.

COLLEGE BAND

Prof. Tonner conducts annual Spring Concert

The College Orchestra and Band furnish the student a fine opportunity for experience and facility in playing, and for the study of the classics. The Orchestra furnishes the music for the various entertainments of the societies during the year.

The Band plays at all athletic programs, adding color and spirit to these contests.

Toward the end of each scholastic year all departments of music combine to present a musicale.

COLUMBIAN PLAYERS

Scene from Owen Davis' mystery-comedy, "Mr. and Mrs. North."

The history of the Columbian Players is almost contemporaneous with that of Saint Joseph's. It was founded in 1892 as the Columbian Literary Society. From the beginning its purpose has been to guide the students on the way to cultural growth.

Under the direction of the Rev. Lawrence Heiman, Moderator, the Columbian Players are seen in several major productions each year in the college theatre.

Gloria Rasak and Don Horst
as Mr. and Mrs. North.

SENIOR PROM

The formal Senior Spring Prom has become the outstanding social event of the school year. Sponsored by the Junior Class to honor the Seniors, the prom attracts both students and alumni. The annual event is always highlighted by the music of a name band.

The fieldhouse, scene of the annual Spring Prom, is transformed into a veritable fairyland. The choosing of the Queen of the Prom and the Grand March climax an evening's unforgettable entertainment.

RALEIGH REC HALL

Raleigh Recreation Center, located southwest of the fieldhouse, was erected in the summer of 1947. Outstanding features are a large dual fireplace and a soda fountain. Facilities for pool, billiards and ping-pong are ample to supply needs of patrons. During the past year several smaller dances were held in Raleigh.

To publish the campus news and to give students first-hand experience in reporting and publishing is the purpose of the campus newspaper, STUFF. The 1947-'48 staff of writers and reporters were new at the business of editing the campus paper, but it was not long before things were running smoothly and the paper coming off the presses regularly every other week.

Campus news and items of interest to the students were gathered and edited by the students under the direction of the Rev. Charles J. Davitt, faculty adviser, who was appointed to that office last September.

STUFF has been a member of the Catholic School Press Association for a number of years, and has been awarded the "All Catholic" rating by that body year after year.

STUFF - MEASURE

Saint Joseph's has its own literary magazine, MEASURE, which is published semi-annually. It gives the students an opportunity to express themselves in the form of fiction, drama, or poetry. The best productions of the students' pens are published by a student-editorial staff, with Fr. Davitt as faculty adviser.

Literary creations, departmental studies, book reviews, and human interest stories are carefully selected by the staff for their originality, clarity, and exactness.

Since MEASURE first appeared in 1937 it has annually received "All Catholic" rating.

Sports Editor Bud Clark and Editor-in-Chief Bill Fox laying out an issue of STUFF.

PHASE 1948

Many hours of preparation have gone into the composition of this yearbook. The staff has endeavored to provide a true picture of the past year which will serve to recall pleasant memories in the years to come. Since all members of the staff were neophytes at the business of editing and publishing an annual, work progressed slowly. They sincerely hope they have accomplished their purpose.

The staff gratefully acknowledges the invaluable assistance rendered by Fr. Baechle and his photographers.

The Homecoming celebration was set off with the lighting of the annual bonfire and pep rally, the night of October 31, and continued through the next day when the Pumas played one of their best games of the year by tying undefeated Louisville, 7-7.

The dance, Saturday evening, was a great success and was enjoyed by all alumni and students present. The Student Council, the Columbian Players, and the Albertus Magnus Society are to be complimented on the way they transformed the gym into such a beautiful spectacle. Gene Hunt and his band provided the music.

The student body turned out enmasse for the 1947 Homecoming bonfire.

HOMECOMING

Before the Puma-Louisville Homecoming game, alumni and visitors toured the campus to view the Homecoming decorations designed by residents of the various halls. Winner of the award for the most ingenious display was Noll Hall, where residents had constructed a huge spider web suspended between Gaspar and Noll Halls. Trapped in the center of the web was a Louisville gridded with a monstrous St. Joe spider descending for the kill.

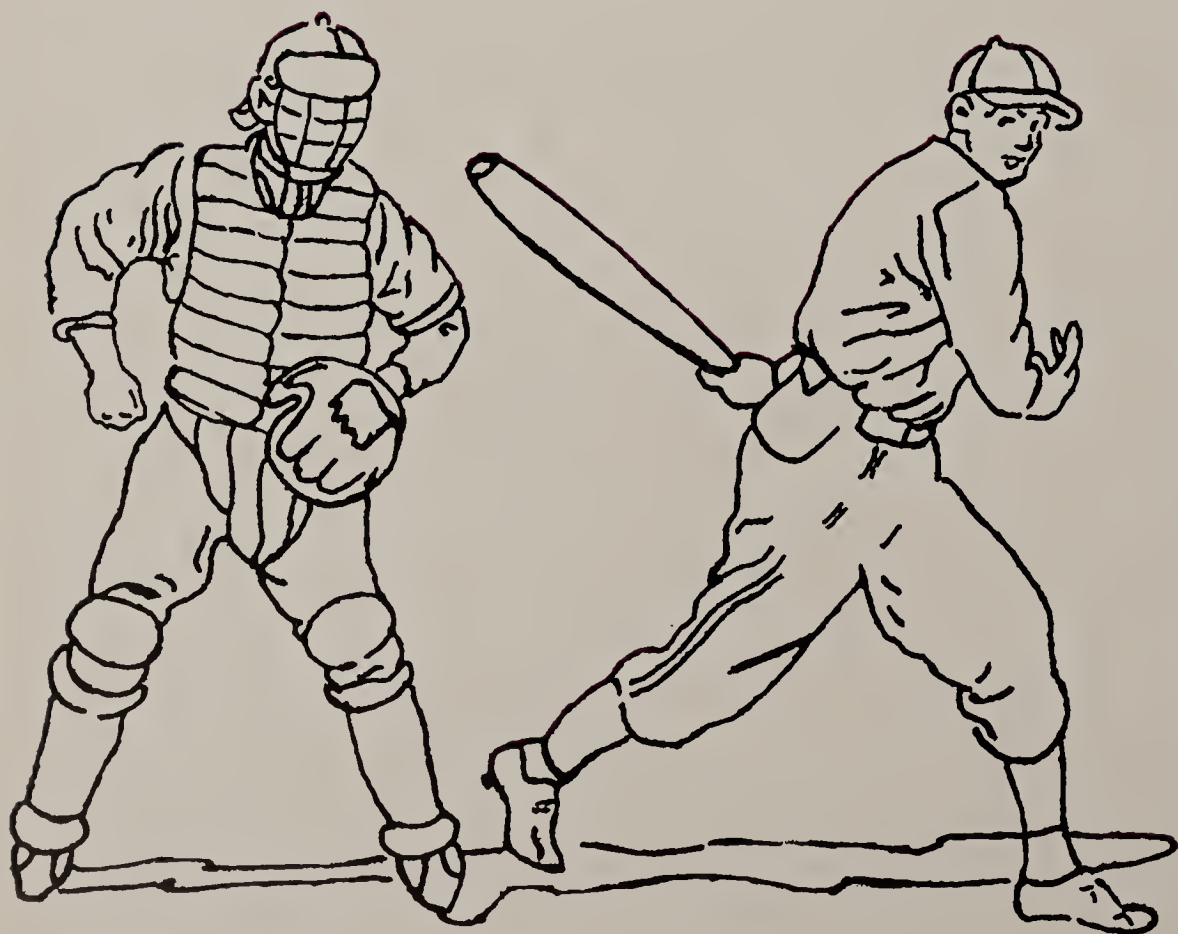

The 1947 Homecoming was one of the best Saint Joseph's has ever seen.

Noll Hall took first prize for Homecoming decorations.

SPORTS

INTRODUCTION

Competitive sports pose a paradox. The objective, naturally, is to win. Everybody follows a champion. But continuous victories can easily take their toll among less level characters, as exaggerated estimations of self-importance are apt to creep unnoticed into heads swollen with pride due to conquests. The effects of over-confidence have been shown over and over again as so-called heroes were speedily reduced to goats within a few short hours as the underdog showed his true mettle.

Consider, then, the loser. The cold impersonal record book does not favor his efforts. Yet, he has profited by his reverses more than may be immediately evident. Working with his mates in the shadow of his own goal, he has found that the game is not entirely an offensive procedure. He has learned how to act when others have the ball, when they are scoring the runs. And upon losing he has learned to accept losses gracefully, to forget them; then, with the instinctive desire to win, to prepare to fight the next battle to the finish.

Extract these ideas from the realm of sports and project them upon a much larger, more inclusive screen. Life, too, is oftentimes composed of a series of goal line stands. Men who have experienced the stigma of setbacks might be better tempered to withstand such forces.

Perusal of their records will bear out the statement that Puma athletes had a mediocre year. Despite the records, a few bright spots remain: Puma perseverance kept Collegeville's undefeated Homcoming Day record intact; and again it was pure fight which was responsible for the only blemish in the otherwise undefeated football season of the University of Louisville.

The Pumas lost many engagements; they won a few. Regardless of the outcomes, it cannot be denied that in all contests they fought superbly.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Under the guidance of the Athletic Board all Varsity and Intramural sports programs are arranged. Eligibility, schedules, and awards are under its jurisdiction. Improvement of facilities to the end that athletics at St. Joseph's may be advanced is given constant attention by the Athletic Board.

COACHING STAFF

The "Big Four" of athletics at St. Joseph's who guide the destinies of the Pumas. All four are in their second year of coaching Varsity sports at Puma-ville.

Head football coach, Mr. Richard Scharf, is an alumnus of SJC, and coached Academy football prior to his assignment to his College coaching duties.

Assistant to Coach Scharf is Mr. James Puett, former Logansport high school and later Butler football, basketball and track star. His spare time is spent managing the Recreation Hall.

Mr. Fred Jones, line coach, is also team conditioner and known for his rigorous calisthenics. He too is an alumnus of St. Joseph's and an all-conference end. Collegeville's intramural program is under his direction.

Head basketball mentor is Mr. Arthur Cosgrove who began his coaching career while a student at Butler U. as assistant coach at Cathedral High School, Indianapolis. Before coming to St. Joseph's Mr. Cosgrove coached at Reitz Memorial High School, Evansville, Ind., where his teams amassed 63 wins in 75 contests.

TIMELY BLOWS

Saint Joseph's Pumas, with Coach Dick Scharf at the helm, faced a ten-game schedule at the beginning of the 1947 season.

Behind the effective five-hit pitching of Charley Hodges and the timely hitting of Maurie Angermeier and Wally Moore, the Pumas opened the season with a 2-1 victory over Evansville College. Both nines were scoreless until the fourth inning, when Evansville tallied their only run. The Pumas evened the score in their half of the fifth on two hits and a bunt. In the sixth Cy Bohney singled, and went home on Wally Moore's long double. It was St. Joe's game.

Scoring all their runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings, the Pumas won their second straight game over Indiana State's Sycamores, 11-8. The contest was in sharp contrast to the opening day's pitchers' battle. St. Joe connected for 17 hits; State, for 11.

The Scharfmen romped to a 14-3 victory over Chicago Teachers College in the third game of the season. Batting and fielding gems and a plague of errors were all part of the game. The Pumas broke loose in the third, scoring seven runs. They added three in the fourth, one in the fifth, one in the sixth and two in the eighth. Not until the sixth inning did the Teachers cross the plate; they added another run in the eighth, and a third in the ninth.

Their win streak was stretched to five straight games when the Pumas toppled Valparaiso University in both ends of a double-header. The scores were 2-1 and 10-4.

The first game of the twin-bill was a pitchers' duel, with Charley Hodges, St. Joe's southpaw, emerging triumphant by virtue of a brace of runs in the first inning. After the third inning, in which Valpo tallied its only run, Hodges was never in serious difficulty, fanning 10, walking three and giving up only six hits.

Hank Knight twirled the Pumas to victory in the nightcap, his mates pounding Valpo's Scheub for 11 hits, good for 10 runs. Three of the four runs scored off Knight's delivery were unearned.

Indiana University dealt the Pumas their first setback of the season when they trounced the St. Joe nine, 20-8. The defeat was the first suffered by the Pumas' ace hurler, Charley Hodges, who was knocked from the box in the fifth inning. The Hoosiers scored six runs in the first inning, added three each in the second, third, and fourth frames, two in the sixth, and three in the seventh. St. Joe tallied one in the third, one in the fifth, two in the sixth, one in the eighth, and a pair in the ninth.

Valparaiso defeated the Pumas, 5-4, jumping on two Puma hurlers for 13 hits and five runs. A last inning St. Joe rally, which netted two runs, fell one short. The second game of the scheduled twin-bill was called off because of rain.

Scoring one all-important run in the fourth inning, Indiana State edged out the Pumas, 1-0, in the eighth game of the season. It was not a day for hitters at Terre Haute. Only six hits were made in the game, four by State, two by the Pumas.

Roeschlein was in rare form, allowing only two singles. He faced only 28 men, and allowed no one to advance beyond first base. Hodges gave only four base hits, and kept them well scattered. A fourth inning pass, a sacrifice, and a bouncer through the box gave State the winning run.

The Pumas closed the season with a double win over the Gobs from Great Lakes Naval Training Station, on the local diamond. The Navy men were shut out 9-0 in the opener, and were on the short end of a 10-1 score when the last ball had been pitched in the second game.

TRACK

Saint Joseph's thinclad squad met Valparaiso University in a dual meet on May 7, coming out second best.

The Pumas finished first in the 440-yard dash, the 880-yard relay, and the broad jump; second in the mile run; second and third in the 120-yard high hurdles; and third in the quarter-mile, the 120-yard low hurdles, and 220-yard dash.

Charley Hanley took third in the pole vault and tied for second in the high jump. Fritz Fehrenbacher captured third place in both the shot-put and discus throw.

Fifteen racqueteers answered the call for tryouts, issued by Rev. Edward Roof, Tennis Coach, last spring.

In the only meet scheduled, Saint Joseph's team went down to defeat at the hands of Valparaiso University, 7-2.

Ray Heitzman, playing No. 1 position for the Pumas, was defeated in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Joe Collier took the next match from Marencik, of Valpo, 7-5, 7-5. Bill Dawson was outstroked, 6-3, 6-3, and Johnny Thompson lost to Meyer of the Uhlans, 6-4, 6-3. Tommy Brell defeated Thellman, 6-1, 6-4, to round out the Pumas' victory column. In the last singles match Benny Danko was beaten 6-3, 6-2.

Valparaiso swept the three doubles matches.

Competition is strong and student interest runs high in intramural sports at Saint Joseph's.

With eight teams competing in football, the "Peaceful Greeks," representing Upper Noll Hall, won six games and tied one to win the championship, and were honored at the annual football dinner and awarded miniature gold footballs.

Two intramural basketball leagues were formed by Mr. Fred Jones, Intramural director, —the A league, with eight teams, and the B league with eighteen quintets. The season ended with the "Fairies" as champions.

A new Intercollegiate Athletic Conference—the Midlands Conference—with five member colleges of the Middle West, was inaugurated this year. Its purpose is to promote, regulate and supervise athletics, both intercollegiate and intramural, among members of the conference. At the first Midlands Extramural Tournament, held at St. Ambrose College, Davenport, Ia., in March, the host school won first place with 19 points. Saint Joseph's was runner-up with 13 points in the five-sport tourney.
